

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

EXECUTIVE ORDER

November 3rd, 2018

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose

Recognizing the need for a steady influx of new employees to agencies whilst also balancing the security and integrity of the United States.

Section 2. Employment Immigration Requirement

- (a) In order to hold any position in any agency across the Executive Branch, a person must have passed the United States Citizenship & Immigration Services immigration requirements and be ranked as "Citizen" or above in the United States group.
 - (i) The changing dynamic of the immigration system mandates that the person must be an active citizen. Previously passed people who are choosing to re-immigrate are not considered to have passed the test by this order.
- (b) People whom, under Executive Order 2306, are in requirement of a security clearance must have been a citizen for a minimum of 7 days before they may be considered for those positions.

It is so ordered.
