

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

FROM: BruceASnyder, President of the United States
DATE: October 2nd, 2018
SUBJECT: Judicial Review Audit

Attorney General,

Recognizing the need for the Constitution and laws of the United States to be applied in all scenarios, instead of simply when convenient. We have 133 effective laws in the United States; and less than a dozen have been subject to any kind of judicial scrutiny.

It is hereby directed as follows:

Section 1. Judicial review audit

- (a) The Department of Justice will carefully and considerately review every established act of congress, cross-referencing with the Constitution and Constitutional Amendments to ensure laws enacted are within the realms proscribed in said constitution.
- (b) Where there is reasonable belief that a law may be in violation of our Constitution: the Department of Justice will submit its arguments to the Federal Court and ask for the court to exercise its power to judicial review.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Bruce Snyder".

President of the United States

President of the United States